

EURACT Multi Source Feedback for Medical Educators

Please rate your colleague by ticking one box in each line.

Criteria	Poor	Less than satisfactory	Satisfactor y	Good	Very good	Do not Know
Acts to ensure patient safety is not affected by training activities
Is organised in the delivery of teaching
Uses appropriate resources in teaching
Is competent in the use of a range of teaching methods
Provides effective supervision to learners
Offers feedback in a non-judgemental manner
Identifies problems as they arise with learners
Aware of and can use different assessment methods
Understands and can apply educational theory
Works effectively in teams
Evaluates teaching
Responds to feedback and changes practice
Involvement in educational research
Is committed to improve teaching
Respects trainee and patients' confidentiality
This GP Educator should stop:
This GP Educator should continue to:
Any comments:

